

Household and Personal Assets Inventory Record

Includes a Built-In Automatic Values Calculator

SecureContents

preparedness, protection, security

Est. 1999

A Few Benefits of Your Home Inventory Record ...

- All homeowner insurance claims (mandatory)
- Moving day preparedness/organization
- Family estate distribution and verification records
- Recovery of stolen property (detailed recovery evidence)
- Don't sell/buy/lease a furnished home without the details.
- Peace of mind you deserve!

TOTAL RECALL of one's personal contents in one room is quite the accomplishment for anyone in the most mellow of times. Remembering all those contents in ALL your rooms and garage after a fire, break-in, earthquake, or other calamity is practically impossible! Yet, that's exactly what you'll be asked to do and PROVE when you submit a claim on your homeowner's insurance policy! An inability to recall and PROVE your losses will result in a much smaller compensation payout for your personal contents! But since we buy insurance to obtain fair and adequate financial restitution, why jeopardize that RIGHT to memory?

To learn more about Secure Contents and how we can help, visit:

www.securecontents.net.

Included in your Electronic Inventory:

- 28 inventory pages
- 459 item description rows
- A cover page for your general notes

Every Inventory page includes the following columns:

- Image Reference Number
- Purchase Price
- Age of Item
- Replacement Cost
- Automatic Value Calculator

Using the Inventory Record: Your Inventory Record is an Interactive PDF that allows you to type information into the blanks provided. (For best results, use the Inventory Record on a computer or a laptop.) To use the Inventory Record, first open the file in Acrobat Reader or Acrobat. Use the TAB key to move to the next fillable space, or click directly on a space to fill in or edit. Be sure to save the file to your computer with a new file name if you want to keep the original blank form. You can also print the blank form and enter your items on paper.*

HOUSEHOLD AND PERSONAL ASSETS INVENTORY RECORD

INSURED:	DATE OF INVENTORY:
LOCATION:

General Notes

Insured's Signature _____

